IS BOURBON IN THE OIL FIELD?

SUCH IS THE BELIEF OF PROSPECTORS AT WORK IN THIS COUNTY.

That oil may soon be discovered in Bourbon county is the belief of a number of spectators and prospectors who have been actively at work in this county in the Hutchison vicinity for several weeks past. These operators are men who have had long experience in the oil fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Texas and Oklahoma, and their predictions that there is oil in the section of Bourbon county referred to above may be taken literally.

Mr. George W. Easton, an experienced oil man, well driller and operator, a Pennsylvania prospector, appears to be the leading spirit in the search for the oily deposits which he believes lie in the bowels of the earth in this county. Mr. Easton has been the most active man in securing leases for oil and mineral rights on the farms in the Hutchison vicinity where the developments look most promising.

It was learned by THE NEWS man this week that the owners of a very large body of land lying in the Hutchison vicinity have been approached at different times by operators to lease the oil and mineral rights on their lands. This is supplementary to others which were reported some weeks ago in the same neighborhood.

Mrs. William Kenney stated that leases have been offered to several of her neighbors, not only for oil and mineral, but for natural gas rights as well. She said that her own farm of seventy acres in the Hutchison neighborhood was one of the number that the operators had under consideration. The leases are all in the nominal terms of one dollar, and all provides for the usual one-eighth royalty upon all oil or gas marketed.

It was also stated that the extensive lands of the Charlton Alexander heirs, Mr. M. R. Jacoby, Mrs. Beattie and others in the same vicinity are also under lease for the same purpose. There has never been any extensive oil or mineral developments in Bourbon county, although there have been some gas wells of small production, which the land owners use for heating and lighting their own houses. Several years ago a flurry was created in the North Middletown neighborhood by the discovery of small pockets of oil on the farm of the late Col. J. W. Prescott and others in that vicinity, but the developments were abandoned after being worked but a short time.

MORE IMPORTANT THAN INTEREST.

In the payment of a debt it is not the interest, but the principal, which gives the greatest trouble.

The Bourbon Building & Loan Association loans money at 6 per cent, and each monthly payment reduces the principal along with the interest.

Call at our office for full particulars regarding our new ones, which opens June 2.

BUSINESS MEN DECLARE FOR BOND ISSUE.

PARIS, KY., May 29, 1917. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We, the undersigned citizens and business men of Paris, believing that the need of getting children out of the basement is urgent, that there is great danger to their health, that the present plans of the Board of Education are as good as can be devised, and that the present time is as opportune as there is any likelihood of its being for several years, do hereby heartily endorse the movement for the proposed additions to the schools and pledge ourselves to vote for the bond issues on Saturday, June 2, 1917:

IMPORTANT ACTION OF BOARD OF HEALTH

PARIS, KY., June 1, 1917. Investigating the Paris High Schools, white and colored, and having found many unsanitary conditions existing therein, the Board of Health feel it its duty to notify those in charge that unless necessary changes are made looking to the relief of such ill conditions, said Board will be constrained to close the basement of the High School, (white) for the reception of children in class rooms. This part of the building was not at all intended by the building committee to ever have been used for such purposes. There is a way to obviate the difficulty and the Health Board can not too strongly recommend any means to that end. Neither mental nor physical development should be retarded in our school. Each child should have full opportunity to respond to the demands which will be made upon him or her in the ordinary duties of school life. Damp walls, insufficient light and scarcity of ventilation cannot conduce to the best that is in a boy or girl, therefore the action of this Board.

(Signed.) DR. F. P. CAMPBELL, Pres. MONROE MANSFIELD, N. OBERDORFER, A. H. KELLER, Sect.

BOARD OF EDUCATION. PARIS CITY SCHOOLS.

DEAR SIRS:—At the request of Members Clendenin and Hancock, of your Board, I made a thorough inspection of the City School building this morning. At the same time I interviewed some teachers as to the purely technical part of their work.

I am thoroughly satisfied that teachers and pupils are not doing their best work because of the crowded condition of the building and the constant shifting, juggling and mixing of children from room to room.

I found children in basement rooms; these rooms were poorly lighted, foul with stagnant air, walls damp and even wet to sight and feel; at least one room was permeated by odors from a lavatory. Up stairs I found children in narrow rooms with light from but one side; I saw six and eight year old children bending and twisting their backs and bodies into all sorts of harmful positions at their desks in order to utilize the insufficient light on a bright sunny morning; on a cloudy day I imagine they do everything but stand on their heads. I would not allow a child of mine to attend your school if it had to occupy either of these five

CLOSE WATCH WILL BE KEPT

AGITATORS AGAINST REGISTRATION FOR CONSCRIPTION TO BE ARRESTED.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Special orders were given to Government officials throughout the country to keep a close watch upon meetings at which there is likely to be agitation against registration under the war army act and to prepare to arrest speakers who encourage violations of the law.

Although the Department of Justice is satisfied that German influence and money are behind the efforts in various sections to interfere with registration, it is officially stated that the influences are regarded as local and sporadic and not inspired by any serious organized effort.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—A list of all known American prisoners of war in Germany made known by the State Department, contains names of seventy-four men, all of whom were taken from merchant ships, captured by German war vessels.

Sixty-one of the prisoners are in a detention camp at Dulmen. One is at Bastatt, Bavaria; five at Karlsruhe, and seven at Havelberg. Mrs. N. Boswell, 4811 Louisville, Ky., and Perkins Walter, Lot, Ky., are among the prisoners being detained.

or six rooms; I think the whole bunch of you should be indicted by the Grand Jury.

W. C. USSERY, PARIS, KY., May 27, '17. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—

This is to certify that I have today inspected the Paris High School building, and find the rooms in the basement which are being used for school purposes are in every way unsanitary, and will propagate a disease, and will spread any infectious disease which is brought into them. This is of the greatest importance to the public, and of even more importance to the parents.

J. T. BROWN, M. D.

Upon inspection of the basement of the City School building I found walls damp, ventilation and light bad, and a general unsanitary condition. A child confined in such quarters will not have an equal chance with one whose quarters are sanitary and healthful, in resisting the diseases common to humanity.

JOHN M. WILLIAMS, M. D. Paris, Ky., May 29, 1917.

PARIS, KY., May 27, 1917. THE BOARD OF EDUCATION:—

Having gone on record as to the necessity of enlarging the Paris City School building when the question of a bond issue was discussed first at the meeting of the Paris Commercial Club, I wish to reaffirm that declaration, for the following reasons:

(1) It is impossible to have good sanitary conditions with sanitary plumbing necessities on the same level in a basement.

(2) It is impossible to get sunlight and proper hygienic conditions in a basement.

(3) In this limestone region it is impossible to prevent seepage of water in basement rooms, so that water stands in one adjacent to those occupied as school rooms.

(4) Dampness, lack of sunlight and proper ventilation foster tuberculosis, and lower general resistance predisposing children to tonsillitis, throat troubles and all diseases in general.

(5) Germs of diphtheria soon die when exposed to dry, warm sunlight, but live indefinitely in dark moist atmosphere, as do germs of all other diseases.

(6) It is unfair not to give every child a good chance in life, so it is unfair to expose a child during the long hours spent in school to unfavorable conditions.

It will be a crying shame to defeat the bond issue and not relieve the overcrowded rooms, besides taking the children out of the damp sunless, badly ventilated basement rooms.

Very truly, C. G. DAUGHERTY.

TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION:—

At the request of Mr. Clendenin, a member of the School Board, I visited the basement rooms in the City School.

I found three school rooms, where probably one hundred and twenty-five children spend five or six hours per day, damp and chilly, though the air was pleasant outside. I found the whole environment such as would tend to the improvement of the child, neither mentally nor physically. The rooms are half under the ground. Two of these three face lavatories, and the air is vitiated with bad odors; the rooms themselves are ugly and gloomy, which has a depressing effect on the child. None of the rooms is at all such a room as any of our citizens would choose for a living room in his home, and yet one hundred and twenty-five of our children, at the most impressionable age of their lives, spend in these rooms six hours a day, twenty days in the month for ten months in the year.

Can you measure the injury done those children?

DR. MARTHA PETREE.

ROADS WASHED OUT.

Game Warden Bush Bishop returned yesterday from a motor trip through Nicholas, Mason and Bracken counties, where he had been on business connected with his office.

Mr. Bishop reports the pikes as being in bad condition following the recent storms. Trees were blown down and fences scattered along the Maysville pike for miles. In many places the force of the wind and water had ripped the macadam surface off the pikes leaving the rocky foundation layers exposed. In other places he saw yards of tobacco cotton hanging on fences where it had been blown from the beds and washed into the branches by the swift downrush of the water from gullies on the hillsides.

Twisted and lightning-scarred trees were in evidence on both sides of the road all the way down. In some places the pike was almost impassable, and he had a hard time getting around some of the obstructions.

POSTMASTERS TO AID IN RECRUITING

"IF YOU DON'T SERVE IN FIGHTING LINE, GET OTHERS TO ENLIST," SAYS APPEAL.

Postmaster J. Walter Payne has received a copy of the following message, similar ones having been mailed to the postmasters of sixty-eight counties in the State, asking them to assist in speeding up recruiting for the army:

"Don't let Kentucky fall behind with fighting men for the United States Army. Kentucky has always done its duty, so let the recruits for the army come now at a time when they are needed. Make up the number required. Make up a good fighting machine of Kentucky men, men that count.

"If you can't serve in the fighting line, do your bit by getting men to enlist. Take all men between eighteen and forty years. No married men wanted at present. We want good, real fighting men, especially for the First Regiment. Now, do your duty by your country, and send on recruits. Let's make Kentucky count in this war."

The War Department in its orders Wednesday asked the Lexington recruiting officers to speed recruiting up to the maximum. The circulars sent out to the postmasters carry the approximate number of persons from each county likely to be drafted in the first call. In this vicinity the list stands as follows: Fayette, 1,175; Bourbon, 425; Nicholas county, 250; Fleming county, 400; Madison county, 650; Scott county, 425.

HECK'S AUTO COLLIDES WITH TREE

In the darkness which overspread Lexington during the storm Sunday night, Mr. C. W. Heck, while driving his auto down a street in Lexington collided with a tree near the edge of the sidewalk. The machine was damaged, the front axle being bent and the fenders broken. Mr. Heck was able to return to Paris, where the car was placed in the repair shop.

ALL MUST REGISTER FOR MILITARY SERVICE JUNE 5.

All men between the ages of 21 and 31 years must register for military service, if called upon, next Tuesday, June 5. That does not mean at all that all who register will be called on for service, but that all of the above ages mentioned must present themselves for registration, even the classes exempted from military service under the conscription act of Congress.

Here are some of other provisions of the law of interest to all who will get their names on the conscription roll:

Any person failing to register, or who registers falsely shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

In case of temporary absence from his legal residence, a man must register by mail.

Hours of registration shall be between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m., June 5, 1917, at the registration place in your home precinct.

Those who are too ill to register are required to apply for instructions before June 5, as to how they may register by agents.

The sick and those absent from home on June 5, may apply to the Sheriff of the county where they may be, or to the City Clerk, in cities of more than 30,000 population, on any day after the proclamation is issued. They may fill out the blanks and forward them to the proper registration officer at once.

Congress proposes to dam the Mississippi at a cost of $40,000,000,000. We'll agree to dam it and Congress both for half the sum.

Proclamation!

Tuesday, June 5th, being the day set apart for registration, and it being apparent that full attention be given to the same by all the citizens of Bourbon county, a mass meeting is hereby called for all citizens of the county to meet at the Court House on Monday, June 4, 1917, at 2:30 p. m.

All merchants of the City of Paris, Ky., are hereby requested to close their stores on said day from 2:30 until 4:00 p. m.

C. A. McMILLAN, County Judge.
J. T. HINTON, Mayor City of Paris.

THAT SCHOOL BOND ISSUE

Facts About The City School

The suggestion has been made that by cutting out the non-resident pupils we might do with fewer rooms and fewer teachers.

If you will read carefully the following facts as to the number and distribution of the non-resident pupils you will see that we could not do without a single room or teacher, even though we should cut out every one of the non-resident pupils.

The High School has seven pupils per room of non-residents.
The Eighth Grade has none.
The Seventh Grade has four.
The Sixth Grade has eight.
The Fifth Grade has seven.
The Fourth Grade has six.
The Third Grade has six.
The Second Grade has twelve.
The First Grade has six.

Now, if we were to refuse to admit any non-residents the largest number removed from any one room would be twelve, which you can readily see would not save us a single room or teacher. But don't overlook the fact that the increase derived from non-residents is over $2,000—enough to hire three teachers.

More About The Increase in Taxes

How much is the assessed valuation of your property?

If it is $500 you would have to pay 50c per year.
If $750 you would pay 75c.
If $1,000 you would pay $1.00.
If $1,200 you would pay $1.25.
If $1,500 you would pay $1.50.
If $1,750 you would pay $1.75.
If $2,000 you would pay $2.00.
If $2,500 you would pay $2.25.
If $3,000 you would pay $3.00.

Is it a fact in order to save 50c to $3.00 per year, you would vote to keep 131 of your own or your neighbor's children in the basement of the City School building?

If you don't believe these facts, go and ask to be shown through the building.

You have the right to know the conditions, and we guarantee you every courtesy.

The Mighty Bean.

Once upon a time our sympathies went out to the "poor devils" who ate beans. We somehow learned to fix a fellow's financial standing by what he carried home from the grocery, and when we saw him sneaking home with a side of bacon and a sack of beans we hoped that the time would never come when we would be forced to let people see us so short in our possessions of the coin of the realm.

We recall, all of us, how old Lev Dockstader, Geo. Primrose, Milt G. Barlow and countless other minstrel men referred to the cheap restaurants as "beaneries," and we also recall, not more than fifteen or twenty years ago, when our great objection to enlisting in the army was the fact that the rations consisted principally of beans.

So, when our attention was called at the breakfast table the other morning to the fact that porterhouse steak and tenderloin are both getting a little too high we promptly saw a solution to the problem. Beans, that's the proper thing when everything else goes aviating—eat beans, lots of them, and kind, size, shape or color of beans.

Strange, too, we hadn't thought of beans. But then there had been that old prejudice against them; old memories of the days when they were spurned by any man who made as much as $1.50 a day. So we promptly visited a "Paris grocer," somewhere on Main street, nappy in the thought that so simple a thing as solving the high cost of living had fallen to the lot of an ordinary newspaper man.

The grocer (name deleted for patriotic reasons) displayed some splendid spring styles of beans of the most approved patterns—at 35 cents a quart. If we wanted a whole bushel he would make a sacrifice, and would let us have them for $11.20 a bushel. And there were sacrificial tears in his eyes at the thought of parting with them at that absurdly low figure. Visions of beans at eighty cents a bushel flitted past. Old days when we felt sorry for folks who were forced to eat beans three times a day were recalled. And here were beans at $11.20 a bushel!

We bought a pint—of beans. In the years to come we want the three little children who were in the grocery at the time to remember us as the man who once owned a pint of beans!

Real Americanism.

It is easy to sit in Paris, or beneath the shade of a tree out along some grassy spot in Bourbon county and cheer inwardly for the old flag. But have you ever stopped to think how strong the spirit of patriotism actually grows in the human breast and the sacrifices thousands of American men not only WOULD make but ARE making?

We're not doubting for a moment but every man in Bourbon County would give up his seat at the desk, his place in the store or his lounge beneath a shade tree to grab a gun and answer to the "Fall In" call. But we do believe some there are who haven't yet realized the full meaning of patriotism, or to what length thousands are being led by it.

For that reason an occasional example of pure patriotism is not amiss and here is an excellent one. When the American steamer Vacuum was torpedoed and sunk a short time ago survivors of the gun crew were picked up by another armed merchant ship. Among the number were Frank Lasher, of Elgin, Ills., and George T. Wilson, of Missouri Valley, Iowa. They were washed from a life-boat and came near dying of exposure before they were rescued, for the second time. Ordinarily that experience would be sufficient to make one want to remain on mother earth, or at least fear of the deep.

Not so with Lasher and Wilson. A few days ago they landed safely in their native land. And the first thing that they did was to hurry to Washington and beg to be placed at once on another ship sailing for the same dangerous waters. We call it patriotism here in Paris. They call "a chance to avenge the deaths of the American boys who went down with the Vacuum."

NONE PAST THIRTY-ONE ALLOWED TO REGISTER.

Men who claim exemption from army draft when they register next Tuesday will be required later to explain fully why they believe they should not be called, according to an announcement made by Provost Marshal General Crowder recently.

Public authorities will determine the exemption of each individual on the basis of the second and more ample explanation—not on the briefly stated reason given the registrar Tuesday.

All men who are married or who belong to classes which may be exempted will not necessarily be subject to exemption. Furthermore, every man between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, must register, regardless of his claim to exemption unless he is a soldier, sailor or officer actually in Federal military or naval service.

Each man must state his full name, age on last birthday, street address, date and year of birth, occupation and the kind of establishment where he is employed, military experience, whether he is single or married at present; whether he has a father, mother, wife or child, brother or sister under 12 years of age dependent solely on him for support; whether he is a State or Federal official; whether he is a native born American, or whether he or his father is naturalized or has taken out first papers.

Men past 31 should not try to register, as they will be refused and will only confuse the system.

SUNDAY EXCURSIONS.

The Louisville & Nashville will run another of their popular-priced excursions to Cincinnati next Sunday, June 3, at $1.50 the round trip from Paris. The train will leave the Tenth street passenger station in Paris at 8:20 a. m., and will leave Cincinnati returning at 7:05 p. m.

The Cincinnati Reds and the Boston Braves will meet on the Redland field at the Cincinnati League Park, and the other attraction of the Queen City will afford a day's entertainment for those who patronize the excursions.

ATTENTION, CANDIDATES!

The law requires each candidate to file an expense account, etc., before the primary election, and also one after the regular election.

The "Thomas Election Form" has been approved by the Attorney General. Hon. Henry Lawrence has had these "forms" printed in two sets and is furnishing them to all the counties.

Mr. Lawrence has appointed the undersigned his agent in Bourbon county, who will supply these forms to all candidates at $1.50 per set. SWIFT CHAMP.

NEGRO PREACHER URGES NEGROES NOT TO REGISTER.

J. H. Massey, colored, pastor of the colored Methodist church at Woodburn, near Bowling Green, is under arrest on a serious charge preferred in the United States District Court. The negro, it is alleged, was urging negroes in his community not to register in the conscription registration on June 5, and it is further alleged he openly advocated that Germany was right and the United States wrong. The charge in the warrant reads:

"That the said Massey unlawfully conspired with other persons to prevent citizens of the United States from enlisting in the army of the United States, and did at the same time and with the same purpose in view, speak disrespectfully of this government and the army and the flag of the United States, and did dissuade others eligible for military service to military duty."

The arrest followed a number of strong affidavits made before United States Commissioner Renfrow. The arrest of Massey was probably the first of its kind in the State.

AN AMERICAN'S INVENTION HAS MASTERED U-BOATS.

The Westminster Gazette publishes a message from a correspondent, who says the submarine menace is being mastered by a simple method which, the correspondent indicates, is the invention of an American.

"It is giving away no secret," the correspondent writes, "to say that the method, which is reputed to be infallible, requires only a little time to come into full effect and wear the German submarines out. It is a model of simplicity. The press has been liberal in its announcement of Marconi's device, but while extending encouragement to Marconi, it must not be overlooked that the genius who perfected one of the most monumental advances in maritime navigation has devoted his unremitting consideration to the menace, and this resourceful American, too, has worked toward the device along independent lines."

Asserting that the British have better submarines than the Germans, the message continues:

"Only a little time is needed for our pre-eminent inventive brains to outstrip the pirate professors, and by a method which is simplicity itself, we already have the life of the U-boat campaign measured."

MARSHALL TIPPED FOR SECRETARY OF TAX BOARD

It is understood that Collector Ben Marshall, whose term of office has expired, will be elected secretary of the newly-created State Tax Board. The office pays $2,000 annually.

Senator Beckham has presented the name of Percy Haley to succeed Mr. Marshall, with the probability that Mr. Haley will be named by the President. Since Mr. Marshall is to be dropped for reasons personal to Senator Beckham, and his record as Collector has been a most excellent one, prominent Democrats have urged the Tax Board to appoint him secretary.

BLUE GRASS PARK OPENING.

Mr. Thomas D. Murray, secretary of the Kentucky Traction & Terminal Company, makes the announcement to the general public, and to the people of Paris and Bourbon county especially, that Blue Grass Park, on the Lexington and Versailles traction line, near Lexington, will be formally opened for the summer on June 2.

Extensive improvements are being made in the Park, and by the opening day everything will be in readiness for the reception of callers. This is one of the most popular pleasure resorts in Central Kentucky, and enjoys an extensive patronage.

MANAGER SCOTT RESIGNS.

Mr. Charles Scott, for many years manager of the Lexington Opera House and the Ben Ali Theatre, in the same city, and one of the best-known theatrical men in the State, resigned that position Saturday, and has been succeeded by Mr. James A. Todd, of Lexington. Mr. Scott stated that his plans for the future were not yet matured and he could not say at present what they would be.

There is no better-known or better-liked man in the theatrical business in this section of the country than Mr. Scott, who has for the long time he was manager of these two houses and of the Paris Grand Opera House, enjoyed the esteem and high regard of scores of theatre-goers who regret his retirement.

ADDITIONAL HONOR FOR FORMER PARIS WOMAN

As commander of Morgan's Men Association, John A. Lewis, of Georgetown, has appointed as sponsor for the command, Mrs. R. G. Stoner, of Mt. Sterling, lately of Paris, who previously was appointed sponsor for the Kentucky Division, U. C. V., by Maj. Gen. W. J. Stone. Regarding the appointment, Commander Lewis said:

"With great gratification, I have noticed the appointment, by Maj. Gen. W. J. Stone, of Mrs. R. G. Stoner as sponsor for the Kentucky Division, of the United States Confederate Veterans, to represent this body at the annual reunion which takes place at Washington, D. C., on June 3, 1917. As Commander of Morgan's Men Association, I desire to indorse on my own behalf and on behalf of all Morgan's men this appointment, and further, in response to the universal request of Morgan's men, to appoint her as individual sponsor of this command to take part in the ceremonies of the United Confederate Veterans' Association."

BRINGS BACK GLAD TIDINGS.

Mr. J. J. Veatch, District Manager of the Central Home Telephone and Telegraph Company, Mr. W. H. Cannon, local manager and Mr. Thomas K. Smith, cashier, have returned from Louisville, where they attended the tenth annual convention of the Southern States Independent Telephone Association held at the Louisville Hotel last week.

Mr. Veatch reports, among many other good things in connection with the convention, his instructions to authorize a good substantial increase to all of the worthy employees in the Eastern District where no increases had been made since the first of the year, which, together with those made since the first of the year, means an increase for all employees, at Paris, Carlisle, Cynthia, Maysville, Lawrenceburg, Frankfort and Owenot, as these are the offices operating directly under Mr. Veatch's personal supervision. This was quite a surprise to a number of the worthy employees, and useless to say appreciated as it was expressed by one employee "wished we would have conventions all the time."

WOULDN'T TAKE $100 FOR TANLAC

Prominent Scott County Man Makes Strong Statement.

BENEFIT HAS BEEN LASTING

"I've lived in Scott county for forty years and in Georgetown for the last nine and I have a lot of friends here. I tell every one I meet how much Tanlac has helped me, and I feel that I am doing them a favor in advising them to try it if they feel run down."

This statement was made by E. C. Muddiman, a well known stonemason, 324 Fountain avenue, Georgetown. He continued:

"I have had more or less trouble with my stomach for eighteen years, and until I took Tanlac it seemed I couldn't eat anything without gas forming. I would bloat, and sometimes my stomach would ache. I couldn't sleep more than half the night. I just felt tired all the time. If I would stoop down and raise up quick I'd get dizzy."

"It's been about a year now since I felt that way, and so I know that the help I got from Tanlac since I first started taking it has been lasting. It helped me from the very first bottle. I haven't been troubled with bloating since. I got so I could go to sleep and wouldn't know anything till morning. Just lately I have been troubled with a little touch of gas, but I don't mind because I know that if I take Tanlac again it will straighten me out."

"It's the positive truth that I wouldn't take $100 for what Tanlac did for me."

Tanlac, the master medicine and reconstructive tonic, is sold exclusively in PARIS, by Varden & Son. Other exclusive agents in nearby towns are as follows:

HUTCHISON, Snell & Wood; MILLERSBURG, W. G. Wadell; ELIZABETH, Oscar Smith; CARLISLE, Trueman & Son; GEORGETOWN, C. H. Arnold; WINCHESTER, Duty Drug Company; AUSTERLITZ, B. S. Parish.

LET'S SAVE THE BOYS, AND THE GIRLS.

It has been the cry in every election for the past ten years, "Let's Save The Boys." It has been to vote out this or that—all to "save the boys." Some of the arguments were good and some were far fetched. Now, there is a question up before the people of Paris that really has some merit to it. It's not only for the boy's benefit, but for the girls as well, and it will do more to save the children than lots of other things. It's the School Bond Issue.

A measly sum of $46,000 is asked by the School Board to improve the present school building of the city. It is an absolute necessity that these improvements be made or the School Board would not be asking for it. If you have no property it will not cost you a cent if the improvement is made; if you have property, it will cost you only 10 cents on the one hundred dollars of the assessed value of what you have.

Our school assessment now is way below our neighbors in all the adjoining counties. Even in the mountain counties they seem to be taking more interest in the public schools than some of us down here in the Bluegrass. Let's not let the people who we have been preaching about educating in the remote counties in the mountains outdo us in this proposition of taking care of the children who want education.

The faculty of the Public Schools say we absolutely have to have relief and the School Board say it is a necessity. The Doctors and Health Board say the conditions are unsanitary. Are we, the people who live in God's country, going to see our boys and girls suffer for the want of a proper place to go to school. It is all right to help the Red Cross, the Health & Welfare League, the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, Good Roads Association, etc., but it is the first duty of the citizens of Paris to help our own children first. They are entitled to as much education as the Hindman Settlement School and those to be benefited by the illiteracy campaign. Don't go to the polls on Saturday and vote to keep 131 white children in a dark, dingy, badly ventilated, damp and unsanitary basement. Vote to issue these bonds for the small sum of $46,000, and relieve the conditions now existing in the public schools in one of the best towns in the Bluegrass. If we have anything left we can send that to the Belgian children—and THE BOURBON NEWS is for that, too.

DON'T FORGET.

That the old reliable Bourbon Building Loan Association will open its fourteenth series on Saturday, June 2. We are prepared to make loans on short notice.

FOR THE RED CROSS WORK.

The sale of the Red Cross Seals in the United States passed the million dollar mark last year and at present more than 75 per cent. of the work of anti-tuberculosis organizations of the country are supported by the proceeds. The money from such sales will in a large measure be diverted now for Red Cross army nurses and other instrumentalities will have to be used to raise funds. The Kentucky Board of Tuberculosis Commissioners is handicapped to considerable degree by limited resources of it to educate the people to the fact that the disease can be prevented and a great many cases cured if taken in time and the treatment, shown by experience and results, is fully followed. Write to Dr. W. L. Hietzer, executive secretary at Frankfort, for fuller information, if interested.

Wash Fuller, aged fifty-six, for thirty years a well-known horse trainer, in late years in the employ of Mr. Joe K. The funeral took place in the Paris colored Cemetery yesterday afternoon.

NEW CITY DIRECTORY TO BE ISSUED HERE SOON.

A representative of the Hoffman Directory Company, of Quincy, Illinois, operating and publishing complete city directories of cities and towns in five States, was in Paris, Saturday, making preliminary arrangements for issuing a new and complete city directory of Paris.

The work of canvassing names and locations will begin in a short time, and will be carried forward until every man, woman and child in the city of Paris will have been included. The street number question will be decided upon before the directory is issued and the proper street number of residence of each person will be given. The directory will also have a complete list of residents on the rural delivery routes in the county, and will be a complete work in every respect, issued by a firm that stands at the business world.

It has been ten years since a city directory of Paris was published, and the business changes in that time have been numerous, making the old book almost worthless. The new book will not be an advertising scheme, but a first-class and reliable work in every sense of the word. Due notice will be given as to when the work will begin.

LIGHTNING HITS HOUSE STUNNING SIX.

The home of William Berryman, near Trapp, in Clark county, was struck by lightning during the big storm Sunday night, and almost resulted fatally to members of the family. Mr. and Mrs. Berryman and four children were rendered unconscious and one of the children, Joley Berryman, 10 years old, for a time was in a serious condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Berryman were the first to recover. They carried the unconscious children to the yard and summoned a physician. For two hours the children did not regain consciousness, and the little girl remained in an unconscious state until Monday morning. Her hair was burned off and her clothing badly burned. In three rooms of the home the weatherboarding was stripped off, the furniture and pictures destroyed and all chinaware broken.

DR. KELLER ADDRESSES P. H. S. STUDENTS.

The student body of the Paris Public School gathered in the Auditorium of the High School building Wednesday morning to hear an address by Dr. A. H. Keller, Secretary of the City Board of Health, on the subject of sanitation and hygiene. The members of the Board of Education and the City Board of Health were also present.

Dr. Keller spoke at length on the importance of providing better quarters for the school children, whom necessity compelled to be housed in the dark unsanitary basement of the building. He told the pupils the dangers and disadvantages resulting from such a state of affairs, and explained fully the importance of fresh air, sunlight and comfortable quarters, as being helpful to their growing, young bodies and intellects. He urged them to enlist in the campaign for the school bond issue and said they could make as good an argument for the cause as others, by reason of their knowledge of the actual conditions there.

Dr. Keller's address was listened to by his young auditors with the closest attention and he was given a vote

Enlist Your Dollars in The War!

In this time of our country's need an idle dollar is as much a "slacker" as an idle man. Are your dollars doing their duty?

Armies of dollars are an absolute necessity for national defense. Unless our dollars at home stand back of them the soldiers in the field cannot do their utmost to protect our households and our freedom.

of thanks for his interest in their welfare.

After the close of the address, and as the young people were filing out of the auditorium, one little girl said to a companion: "I wish Dr. Keller could be here some time to see the mice that run across our feet and the spiders that hang down over our heads, sometimes!"

Are these children to be kept in this kind of a place indefinitely? It was rumored yesterday that the City Board of Health would prohibit further use of the basement rooms as teaching quarters on account of the present state of affairs. What will the pupils do then? Where can they be housed until the close of the school term?

NEAR-ACCIDENT AVERTED.
The timely intervention of bystanders prevented what might have been a serious accident on Main street, Wednesday in front of the grocery of Lusk & Shea.
The horse attached to a buggy in which Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson and little babe were riding, slipped and fell on the smooth surface, and in his struggles to arise, overturned the buggy. The occupants were thrown out, but not injured. Patrolman George Judy and several others who happened to be standing nearby at the time came up and rescued Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, and succeeded in quieting the horse before any serious damage was done.

BOURBON BOYS' REGISTRATION CARDS

The first former Parisian to send in a registration card under the terms of the recently-enacted conscription or army drafting law, was Mr. Sherman Snapp, who is now located in San Francisco, California, where he is in charge of a crew of salesmen and demonstrators for the Royal Baking Powder Company.

Mr. Snapp's card was received Monday by Sheriff Wm. F. Talbott. Shortly after cards were received from Thomas B. Link and Robert Link, Jr., both formerly of Paris, who are now in Kansas City, Mo. Although all three boys have been away from Paris several years, they still claim it as a legal home. The letters accompanying their cards signified a willingness to serve Uncle Sam in any capacity.

Smith from drowning, Sept. 16, 1915, Paris, Ky." Around the border of the medal, which is three inches in diameter, are the words, "Greater Love Hath No Man Than This That He Lay Down His Life For a Friend."

The medal is a beautiful and artistic specimen of work and is attracting a great deal of attention.

Mrs. Crosby had been a guest of Mr. N. Ford Brent and family at their home on Pleasant street, for several days, and was en route to Versailles for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wallace and other friends, when the train she was on was wrecked, two cars overturning.

Mrs. Crosby sustained painful, but not serious injuries. Her back was wrenched and her side bruised. She was taken to Eminence, where she received medical treatment, and later removed to a Louisville hospital. At latest reports she was doing very nicely.

MEMORIAL DAY.

There was no public observance of Memorial Day in Paris, Wednesday. The banks and postoffice were closed, but there were no exercises of a public character. In years past the colored G. A. R. Post observed the day with a parade and decorating the graves of their comrades, but now the number of the living has dwindled to a handful.

Many citizens decorated the graves of their dead in the Paris Cemetery, while appropriate services were held in some of the schools. While the placing of flowers on the graves of the dead is an outward manifestation of love and remembrance, we all know that in our hearts every day is a Memorial Day for those who have gone the long journey.

CHIEF LINK CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

In its last issue THE NEWS carried the announcement of Mr. W. Fred Link, present incumbent, as a candidate for the nomination and for re-election to the office of Chief of Police of Paris.

Mr. Link has been a member of the Paris Police force for several years, during which time he distinguished himself as a successful police officer, one who at all times had the proper grasp of his duties, and as he himself stated in his card, published in the same issue, was "always on the job." Mr. Link asks for an endorsement on the strength of his official record, which is an enviable one. On the theory that a good public official deserves an endorsement for a second term he comes before the voters of Paris and asks for their support for the office with the full consciousness of duty well and faithfully done.

C. W. B. M. MEETING

AT N. M. TOWN.

There was a good attendance at the meeting of the Sixth District Convention of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, which was held in the Christian church at North Middletown, Monday morning at nine o'clock.

Despite the threatening weather, and the bad condition of the roads over which many of the delegates had to travel, they came anyhow in numbers and helped make the meeting a most memorable one. The weather conditions, however, materially interfered with the plans of many who would otherwise have been in attendance.

Mrs. R. H. Biddle, Jr., of Paris, presided over the sessions of the Convention. Mrs. Louise Loos Campbell, of Lexington, State C. W. B. M. Secretary, was one of the guests and delegates present.

Reports were made from Auxiliaries, Circles and Mission Bands from different points in the district, all showing gratifying progress and renewed interest in all branches of missionary work. A demonstration of children's work was given under the direction and supervision of Miss Willie Boardman, of Carlisle.

Mrs. Allie Smith Dickson, of North Middletown, previous to the noon intermission, welcomed the delegates and guests in a charming address.

On account of the funeral and burial of Eld. L. H. Reynolds, the venerable minister, who had so long been pastor of the North Middletown church, the afternoon session was shortened, and the address of Chancellor Homer Carpenter, of Transylvania College, was postponed until the evening meeting.

The following delegates and visitors from Paris attended the meeting: Mrs. J. D. Booth, Mrs. R. B. Hutchcraft, Mrs. Clifton Arnsperger, Mrs. Bettie Brown, Mrs. Lizzie Walker, Mrs. S. E. McClanahan, Mrs. Ollie Marshall, Mrs. Harry B. Mathers, Mrs. Charles May, Miss Mary May, Mrs. Thos. Allen, Mrs. Frank P. Kiser, Mrs. Luther Rice, Miss Elizabeth Jasper, Miss Susie Ashbrook, Rev. W. E. Ellis, Mr. Wm. O. Hinton and Mr. A. L. Boatright.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES
KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY.

The University of Kentucky, Lexington, has completed preparations for its 50th annual commencement exercises June 7, at 10 a. m., which are intended to serve, in addition to the customary annual event, both as an expression of the patriotism of the State through the medium of its chief institution of learning and as memorial of recognition of loyal service to the country of not less than five hundred of its students who were excused from classes ahead of schedule time that they might enlist in the army or join in the nation-wide movement to increase the food crop.

The schedule of commencement events follows:

Sunday, June 3, Baccalaureate sermon by the Rev. Benjamin J. Bush at the Maxwell Street Presbyterian Church.

Tuesday, June 5, Board of Trustees meets.

Wednesday, June 6, Class Day.

Wednesday, June 6, Alumni Banquet.

Thursday, June 7, Fiftieth Annual Commencement.

"THE ASPARAGUS BED" OF BOURBON COUNTY.

Referring to the big fish fry given by Mr. Ed. Simms on his farm near North Middletown, Tuesday, the Carlisle Mercury comments thusly:

"When it comes to entertaining, the 'asparagus bed' of Bourbon may be expected to demonstrate her class every time, notwithstanding the fact that Emeline Booker, of color, in her immortal interview granted a representative of the Ohio press, published the community to the world as a 'wilderness,' through which an occasional automobile strays."

FEDERATION OF WOMAN'S CLUBS ELECTS OFFICERS

The Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, which has been in session at Fulton for several days, adjourned Friday, after one of the most entertaining times in its history. The closing day was largely taken up with the election of officers for the 1917-1918 term. It was evident from the turmoil incident to the election that it was far from being the "cut-and-dried" aftermath of a caucus nomination.

The newly-elected officers are as follows: Mrs. R. T. Lowndes, of Danville, president; Mrs. W. J. Hills, Paducah, first vice-president; Mrs. Lafon Riker, Harrodsburg, General Federation Secretary; Miss Alma VanMeter, Danville, corresponding secretary.

Chairmen of the various committees were named as follows: Industrial and Child Labor, Miss Harriet Anderson, Louisville; Home Economics, Mrs. Mary Sweeney, Lexington, and Mrs. Frank Lowry, Paris; Music, Miss Katherine Cochran, Lexington; Philanthropic, Miss Rebecca Averill, Frankfort; Civic, Miss Lida Hafford, Carrollton; Legislative, Mrs. Hardie Ripy, Lawrenceburg; Political Science, Mrs. R. A. McDowell, Louisville; Social Hygiene, Miss Alice Lloyd, Maysville; Library, Miss Fannie Rawson, Frankfort.

It was stated on the floor of the convention that the election of some of the officers might be contested. Following the election, the officers of the Federation and the delegates were taken automobile riding to Hickman, twenty miles distant, where a luncheon was served by the clubwomen.

It doesn't matter that a girl has a poor complexion if her father is rich.

HEARD IN PASSING.

In their moments of relaxation from the strenuous cares and vexations of business life some of the best story-tellers in Paris are merchants who would be the least suspected of yielding their time to such frivolous things. Yet they do, and they often tell good stories, gathered from their daily business experiences in contact with all sorts of humanity.

THE NEWS man in the course of his wanderings along the highway and by-ways in and around Paris, sometimes happens in on a bunch of these good fellows, who are never happier than when they are comparing notes, and exchanging stories that are neither off color nor ultra-respectable, but full of genuine fun, right off the reel. At one of these gatherings the other night THE NEWS man heard these.

"On 'Mothers' Day' in Paris" said one of the men, "I met one of my neighbors, a shy young man who had been for many months calling on a young girl on Higgins avenue, who was, of course, 'the sweetest girl in the world,' but, being bashful, the girl had encouraged him by all the wiles known to femininity, but nothing resulted. On 'Mothers' Day' the fair damsel met her swain, coming from the Christian Church, with a beautiful pink carnation in the buttonhole of his coat. She promptly nabbed him (now this is the story as he told it) and, pointing to the carnation, said, 'I'll give you a kiss for that carnation!' The young man's color outdid the carnation, but he summoned up enough courage to make the exchange. Then he started out on a run, as if afraid to remain longer. 'Where are you going in such a hurry?' called the surprised young woman. 'Say I'm going out to Mr. Christman's for another carnation right away. Wait here until I come back, please.' There is some progress for you."

"I have a young friend," said another of the group, "who is somewhat of a practical joker, and many of his friends have suffered from his caprices. Very happily, this young fellow has weak points of his own. One of them is a dislike of the night air, especially the kind that comes floating in his window some times. One morning about two o'clock there came a tremendous thumping at his front door. The joker jumped out of bed, opened his front window and leaned out.

"In Heaven's name, what is the matter?" he said. "One of your windows is open," called out a person on the sidewalk. "Which one?" said the joking fellow. "The one you are sticking your head through," was the answer, accompanied by a mocking laugh, as the other joker ambled away. My young friend looked around the room for something to fire at the head of the disturber, but the fellow had gotten out of range. And the man in the window has never figured out who the tormentor was."

"In his younger days," spoke up another member of the party, "one of our Irish merchants,—we know him well—used to be a traveling man. One time he was traveling through a section of the country beyond Mt. Sterling. In the seat with him was a man whom our Irish friend soon discovered didn't like the Irish race very well. Presently the train passed near a big hill on the left side of the road. There wasn't a sign of tree or shrubbery of any kind on it. Our Irish friend said to the grouch at his side: 'I wonder what makes that big hill so bare?' 'It's bare,' replied the grouch, "because some Irish man must have spit on it."

"Just then the man who had made the offensive remark lifted his hat and the action revealed a head that was perfectly bald. 'I suppose,' remarked the Irish friend, "that some Irishman must have spit on your head, too." But the grouch turned his head, replaced his hat and kept a discreet silence until the pair separated at a distant station."

NEWSPAPER MEN WILL HEAR MILITARY ADDRESS.

Newspaper men from various sections of the State will be in the center of the convention spotlight in Louisville within the next fortnight at the annual summer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association, which will convene in that city on Monday evening, June 11. The meeting of the newspaper men will be opened with a reception and theatre party Monday evening, and on Tuesday the business sessions will begin.

John B. Gaines, president of the Association, will deliver his annual address on Tuesday morning. All the sessions will be held at the Seelbach. In accordance with the spirit of the times, a military flavor will be injected into the meeting this year. Lieut.-Col. Robert McBryde, of the First Kentucky Regiment, a member of the Courier-Journal staff in peace times, will deliver an address Wednesday, June 13, on "The Duty of the Kentucky Press in The Present Crisis."

The meeting promises to be one of the most interesting ones held in recent years by the Association. Plenty of entertainment will be provided for the scribes and their ladies, and the committees in charge of arrangements have promised all a good time when they invade Louisville.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for if I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains."

A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. BROWN, 2844 W. 12th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

BATHING BEACH AT BOONESBORO TO REOPEN.

With the coming of summer weather, the beach at Boonesboro, a popular resort for Paris people on Sunday's will be one of the most popular resorts on the Kentucky River, and already bathing devotees are looking forward to the time the water will be good enough for them to "go in." Dr. D. J. Williams, who owns the beach, is making extensive preparations for handling largely increased crowds during the summer and is having erected a large number of bath houses along the beach to accommodate the crowds.

Sunday a number ventured to the river to enjoy an afternoon bathing, and a few engaged in the sport, although the water was a little chilly to be enjoyed fully.

Each succeeding Sunday is expected to bring increased numbers of bathers to the beach from adjoining towns.

The man who is thoroughly imbued with the idea that a public office is a private snap doesn't believe in investigating committees.

A TRAGIC STORY.

Citizens of Central Kentucky have not ceased to prepare for war, as evidenced especially in the City of Paris, where men and women are working shoulder and shoulder for the very worst that can come. Yet Central Kentucky does not differ from other sections of the State, in that a few still refuse to awaken and seemingly do not realize the seriousness of the situation. For that reason, and for the benefit of those who still hold out against preparedness, we offer as the strongest plea that has yet come to our attention these words from a Columbus, O., man who returned home from the trenches in France a few days ago, crippled in body but clear of mind, and with an awful warning to those who look upon this struggle lightly. He said:

"We were loafing around our big gun. Nothing doing. Men at ease. The telephone rang. Our captain received orders. Then he said to his men: 'Set her at 83-26. Fire fifteen shots. Instantly every man was at his post. The giant gun spoke. Each time a great shot weighing one and one-half tons was hurled some twenty miles. After this action the men resumed their smoking and ease. They did not know or see what they were shooting at. Afterwards they learned that they had destroyed a fort and killed 300 Germans. Aeroplane men get the distance, figured the angle and power of the gun to exactness. Then they telephoned orders to set the gun at 83-26 and fire. The shot went true. No guess-work. The men behind the gun simply obeyed orders. They had no idea at what they were shooting. War is hell. America knows but little about the art of modern slaughter of men. Never a war like this. From the sky come orders to set the gun at certain point and angle and fire. American boys had better drill a few times before they attack these deadly engines of death. Our boys will battle men who have had years of training and three years of experience in the trenches. Realization of these facts will not bring joy to the hearts of mothers. Prepare for REAL war is the order to America."

WEATHER AFFECTING CROPS AND GARDENS.

All kinds of crops in Bourbon County have received a setback on account of the prevailing unseasonable weather conditions. The heavy hail, rains and winds have seriously damaged the vegetation. Warm rains and sunshine are now absolutely the only salvation for the crops and gardens.

The hemp acreage is very large and the stand of hemp is good. The acreage of corn and potatoes is the largest ever planted in the county. Potatoes are very promising, but, owing to the cold weather the first stand of corn was bad. Only a good season is now needed to produce a bumper crop. Oats is looking well. The acreage of tobacco is the county has been cut considerably in order to make room for more foodstuffs for war necessities. The plants look very well, but hardly any have been set out.

Gardens were almost beat out by the severe winds, hail and rains of Saturday and Sunday, but it is hoped that there may yet be enough sunshine this week to bring them back to their former flourishing state.

PROPER FOOD FOR WEAK STOMACHS

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suitable to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. (may-adv)

It may have been a little bit tame in the old days to have to go joy riding on Sunday in a buggy drawn by a horse. But the newspapers didn't have to reserve a column for the list of the killed and injured every Monday morning.

HAPPY REUNION OF BROTHER AND SISTER.

After a separation of thirty-two years, in which time she had not seen her brother, Mrs. A. Feld, of Winchester, sister-in-law of Mr. David Feld, of this city, and her brother, Mr. Harry Cohen, were reunited in happy meeting at the home of Mrs. Feld, in Winchester.

Mrs. Feld and her brother parted in their old home in Gradno, Poland, when Mrs. Feld, as a bride, took her departure for the New World in company with her husband. The brother subsequently entered the Polish army as a private and rose to the rank of Lieutenant. For many years nothing was heard of him, and he was mourned for years as one dead, all traces of him having been lost.

Fourteen years ago Cohen, it was learned by some members of his race, had come to America, and located in New York, where he engaged in business as a ladies' tailor and dealer in ready-to-wear garments. In all these years he had been making an earnest endeavor to learn the whereabouts of his sister and her husband, and of other friends and relatives who had come to this country at the same time. In some way through business dealings he became acquainted with a Mt. Sterling merchant who was well-known to the Feld family, and from him he learned that his sister and her husband had located in Winchester, and had been in business there for several years. Cohen immediately began a correspondence with Mrs. Feld, and to his joy found he was on the right track. In a few days he made preparations for paying them a visit, and arrived in Winchester the latter part of last week, where the reunion of the long-separated relatives was a most affecting one.

Mr. Cohen was so impressed with Winchester that he secured a lease on the building belonging to Mr. M. Feld, on North Main street in that city, and will engage in the dry goods business, bringing his family there to reside.

OPPORTUNITY!

Mr. R. F. Clendenin, Associate General Agent for the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, in one day recently, sold $100,000 worth of life insurance over local and long distance lines of the Home Telephone Company and because of such an amount of business accumulated in one day, he divides the honors with us for the efficient telephone service rendered. This is a splendid record for both Telephone and Insurance Companies.

Mr. Clendenin says: "The service I get from your Company is all that I could ask, and on the closing day of my campaign I used it with wonderful success."

Such an opportunity in facilitating business should be grasped by the public in general in employing co-operation, efficiency and confidence.

MILLERSBURG

—Mrs. E. W. Ammerman, who has been quite ill, is improving.

—Mrs. Neppie Rigdon will move her meat market in the near future from the property of Mrs. Sue V. Sandusky to the Blue Bowl.

—The banks and postoffice were closed Wednesday, Memorial Day. The great majority of our people took advantage of the opportunity, and were busy decorating the graves of their loved ones in the Millersburg Cemetery.

—Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Goldstein have moved to the property of Dr. W. M. Miller, on Sixth street from Owen. Rev. Goldsmith is pastor of the Baptist church here and has occupied the pulpit for two years. It is with great pleasure to welcome them again as citizens of our town.

—Mr. G. W. Johnson and family moved Wednesday from the flat of Ingels heirs over the dry goods store of Ingels Bros., to the property of Mr. E. B. Taylor, on Eighth street. The Ingels flat was badly damaged by water Sunday night during the tornado when the roof of the building was blown off.

—Miss Ethel Jones resigns her position to-day as day operator for the Bourbon Home Telephone Co. and is succeeded by Mrs. Mack Jones. Miss Jones has been in the service for two years, and has given thorough satisfaction both to the company and patrons. Her resignation is a voluntary act, as she is desiring to do something else. She is one of our most accomplished young ladies and at all times has been courteous to patrons.

—The Millersburg Dancing Club put on a play at the Opera House Tuesday evening. It was one of the most brilliant events of the kind witnessed here in a long time. Quite a number of visitors were present from all of the surrounding towns, and also a large number of commencement guests, who had remained over for the occasion. The floor was practically full, and at one time almost too crowded for comfort. The music was furnished by the Versailles Saxophone Trio.

—The commencement exercises of the M. M. L. were continued Monday at 8:15 p. m., with the operetta entitled "An Eventful Day," at the M. M. L. Drill Hall, by the Cadets, assisted by a number of the young people of the town and community. This was unquestionably the best by far of any work that Mrs. C. M. Best has put on in the institution. The piece was in two parts, and was made up of a large number of characters. The solos, duets, trios and choruses were all well selected, and every character seemed to handle his part nicely. The work was well put on, and most all of the parts were equally strong, many of them taking upon themselves a professional air. The scenic effects were beautiful and all present got more than they went for. Notwithstanding the inclement weather a large audience was in attendance.

The exercises were continued Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the Drill Hall, at which time eleven Cadets took their degrees. At the appointed time the Cadets filed in and took their places upon the stage, the audience was large, and it was made up of many parents and loved ones, who had come to see those in whom they had the greatest interest launched into the real activities of life. The literary address was delivered by President Gamble, of Centre College, Danville, and was the best of its kind delivered in Millersburg in a long time. He went into the fundamentals of good government and education and he showed by a process of reasoning that these were worth but little unless they were underlaid with some of the finer elements of human life. At the close of the address Col. Best awarded the diplomas, then reading the honor roll. Cadet Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Allen, received the highest honor, while Cadet Bryan received the second honor, and Cadet Clay, of Paris, the first honor of the class. After the reading of the officers for the coming year, a furlough was granted until September 19, 1917. Most of the Cadets left in the afternoon and evening for their respective homes and the remainder Wednesday morning.

This has been one of the most successful years in the history of the school. There has been no friction, and harmony seems to have prevailed the institution. The outlook for the future is flattering, although the times are uncertain. Col. and Mrs. Best are receiving numerous congratulations over their successful work of the year just closed.

"AS YOU LIKE IT"

IN THE WOODS.

Like the outdoor presentation of the Greek plays in the days of the old Greek gods will be the flavor of originality added the outdoor presentation of "As You Like It," by the members of the North Middletown Dramatic Club, to-morrow evening.

The play will be fittingly staged in a woodland setting on the farm of Mr. Charles H. Meng, about one-half mile from North Middletown, on the Mt. Sterling pike, and will be given for the benefit of the Red Cross Society. An admission price of fifty cents will be charged, by which it is hoped to increase the Red Cross fund very materially.

The characters in the cast will be in competent hands, some of the best dramatic talent in the county having been drilled in these parts, under the direction of a professional. The beautiful woodland in which the play will be presented will be brilliantly illuminated, and will present a charming effect at night. The performance will begin promptly at eight o'clock.

DEATHS.

FOTHERGILL.

—A telephone message Wednesday from Cincinnati relatives in this city told of the death in a Cincinnati hospital of Mr. Edward W. Fothergill, aged thirty-eight, who had been a patient there for some days. Mr. Fothergill's death was caused by aggravated asthma, from which he had been a sufferer for many months.

Mr. Fothergill was a native of Paris, and was the only son of Mr. Charles W. Fothergill, of the Kentucky-Citizen. He attended the city schools in his youth, and after completing his education, went out in the world to seek his fortune. He was for five years connected with the grocery and ice cream parlor of Mr. C. B. Mitchell, and filled other responsible business positions in this city. About ten years ago he went to Toronto, Canada, where he remained several years, being in the employ of a prominent trunk line railroad in the Dominion service. He returned to Paris, and then went to Cincinnati, where he resided to the time of his death.

Mr. Fothergill was a young man of excellent disposition, being one who made friends easily and kept them. He was an accomplished musician, and had many traits of character that made him a welcome addition to any circle. In the days of his illness, which was slowly but surely sapping his life he remained cheerful and greeted callers with a smile and a cheery word.

He is survived by his father, Mr. Charles W. Fothergill, and an aunt, Mrs. E. B. January, of this city. Mr. Charles W. Fothergill was apprised of his son's condition, but reached Cincinnati too late to see him alive.

The body was brought to Paris last night on the 5:35 Louisville & Nashville train, and taken to the home of his father, on Railroad street. The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon at three o'clock from the residence. The burial will take place on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery, with service conducted at the grave by Rev. W. O. Sadler, pastor of the Paris Methodist church.

The pall-bearers will be Chas. E. Mitchell, R. S. Porter, Will A. Hill, Wm. Dudley, Blair Yarden and Logan Howard.

The sympathy of the newspaper fraternity and the community goes out to the father in his bereavement.

LAMPTON.

—William J. Lampton, former Kentuckian, well-known newspaper man and magazine writer, whose poems on current subjects are familiar throughout the country, died of apoplexy at his home in New York, Wednesday. His last contribution to the press was a poem, "The Flag in Sight," printed in the New York Herald on the day of his death.

Mr. Lampton was a native of Lawrence county, Ohio. He began his newspaper work as editor of the Weekly Review, at Ashland, Ky., and had at various times been associated with newspapers in the East and Middle West. He also contributed to many national magazines. Among his best-known works are "Yawns and Other Things," "Confessions of a Husband," "The Trolley Car and the Lady," and "Tame Animals I Have Known."

Mr. Lampton, after leaving the service of the Weekly Review at Ashland, which was then the only Republican paper in the State, went to Louisville, where he became city editor of the Courier-Journal. A feature of his work with that great paper was his "Mary Jane and Dickey" stories, which made him famous all over the country.

SIMS.

—Mr. John Kirk Sims, aged fifty-two, died at the home of his son, Mr. C. E. Sims, in Louisville, from mitral regurgitation. Mr. Sims was a native of Harrison county, a son of the late James and Louise Hibler Sims. His mother was a daughter of the late Minor Hibler, of Paris, who owned and resided in the property on Duncan avenue, now occupied by Mr. Robert C. Talbott. Mr. Sims was assistant superintendent of the circulation department of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

The remains were brought to Cynthiana, where funeral services were held at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. R. S. Haviland, conducted by Rev. J. D. Armistead. The burial followed in Battle Grove Cemetery.

RENAKER.

—The funeral of Mr. Robert H. Renaker, a retired farmer, aged eighty-eight, who died at his home near Lexington, was held at the residence Monday morning at nine o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. F. T. McIntyre. The burial took place in the old Renaker burying ground, in Harrison county.

Mr. Renaker was a third cousin of Mr. Newell Renaker, of C. S. Brent & Bro., of Paris, and has one son, Mr. R. D. Renaker, living in Bourbon county. Besides these he is survived by three sons, J. W. and J. L. Renaker, both of Harrison county; W. W. Renaker, of Lexington; two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Brown, of Kentucky county, and Mrs. C. L. Martin, of Harrison county; and one sister, Mrs. Sallie Ewing, of Cynthiana.

LARUE.

—The funeral of Mr. Frank Larue, who died suddenly at his home in Dallas, Texas, last Saturday morning, was held at the home of his brother, Mr. C. C. Larue, near Shawhan, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The body arrived at Shaw-han, Monday night, and was taken to the Larue home.

Services were held at the residence, conducted by Rev. Dr. Frank W. Eberhardt, of Danville. Following the services the body was taken to Millersburg for interment on the family lot in the Millersburg Cemetery.

TAYLOR.

—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Overby Taylor, aged sixty-nine, who died suddenly at her home in Brooksville, Bracken county, Monday, was held at Piqua, Ky., yesterday.

Mrs. Taylor was the mother of Mr. Ed. B. Taylor, of the Taylor Garage, on South Main street, and a sister of Mr. Thos. Overby, formerly of Paris. She is survived by seven children.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. B. Taylor and their daughter, Miss Catherine Taylor, of Paris, attended the funeral burial at Piqua, yesterday.

"SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT?"

One of the most remarkable celebrations ever held in the State, if not the United States, was held in Richmond, last week. The occasion was the celebration of the ninetieth birthday of Prof. W. S. Giltner, for some twenty years principal of the school at Eminence, business man, philanthropist, and one of the most active workers in the State for the Christian denomination.

Mr. Giltner was a member of a prominent Bourbon county family, and on July 4, 1853, he and Hon. W. B. Smith, of Richmond, both young men, graduated at Bethany College, Virginia. On this occasion Hon. W. B. Smith delivered the Latin salutatory and Prof. W. S. Giltner delivered the valedictory and R. S. Prewitz, of Lexington, delivered an oration. There were twelve graduates in the class, and Kentucky took the lead. Upon the platform with the graduates, all of whom were seated in a semi-circle, were the members of the college faculty. They were Rev. Alexander Campbell, founder of the Christian church, and known as "Campbellites," Prof. A. P. Hook, W. K. Pendleton, Ross and Richardson. Every member of the faculty and every graduate upon that occasion, with the exception of Mr. Giltner and Mr. Smith, have long since died.

Since his graduation sixty-four years ago, Prof. W. S. Giltner and W. B. Smith have never seen each other, although they have both resided in Kentucky, until last week, when Mr. Smith was the honored guest at the birthday celebration of his old college chum.

Hon. W. B. Smith was eighty-five years of age on the 24th day of last month. He has been practicing the oldest practitioner at the Richmond bar.

PERCY HALEY APPOINTED

General Percy Haley, of Frankfort, who has for several days been tipped as a certain successor to Mr. Ben Marshall, of Lexington, as Collector of Internal Revenue for the Seventh Kentucky District, received a telegram Tuesday night from United States Senator J. C. W. Beckham, at Washington, notifying him that his nomination for the office had been confirmed by the Senate. Gen. Haley will assume the duties of the office on June 1.

Gen. Haley's appointment is the first of the division of the patronage in this State by President Wilson between Senators Beckham and James. As Gen. Haley is the first "prohibition collector to be appointed in the United States, it indicates that a "dry" Senator is held equally in as high esteem by President Wilson as a "wet" one.

Mr. Haley, in an interview given out to members of the press, stated that he had no particular person in view for appointment to places in the internal revenue service or for any of the offices that will come under his direct control.

ASSISTANT CASHIER RESIGNS POSITION.

Mr. Grimes has been in poor health for some time, and intends to devote his entire time to farming. He will be succeeded by Mr. Dan W. Peed, Jr., who has been an assistant in the bank for some time in the capacity of assistant bookkeeper.

—By special request of the Bourbon county members of the National Defense Council THE NEWS is asked to urge the ministers of the county, both white and colored, to deliver special sermons to their congregations next Sunday on the importance of every man within the military age registering at their voting places in the city and county next Tuesday, June 5. There seems to have been a mistaken impression that colored men will not be required to register. The ministers are urged to make a point of this in their sermons, and to look carefully over the provisions of the item published in another column of THE NEWS.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

If the good old poet who once, in the long, long ago, wrote rapturously those little lines, "O, what so rare as a day in June?" had been a resident in Paris in April and May, he would have wondered why he ever went into hysterics over such a thing. Sunshine has been a very rare sight in this neck of the woods during the months just passed.

MATRIMONIAL.

FORD—WALLER.

—The marriage of Mr. Herndon Waller, assistant secretary of the Bourbon County Young Men's Christian Association, in this city, to Miss Frances Ford, daughter of Mr. Deweese Williams, of Georgetown, will take place in the Georgetown Christian Church, at eight o'clock, Saturday evening, June 9. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Dr. Ainsworth, formerly pastor of the Georgetown church.

Mr. Waller has made a host of friends since he came to Paris, who will unite in wishing him and his fair bride-elect all the happiness that can come to them in the present and the future.

Miss Zillah Dawes, of Georgetown, a sister of Mr. Waller's former co-worker, Mr. C. C. Dawes, and a frequent visitor in Paris, entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Ford, the guests being limited to Miss Ford's intimate friends.

STRONG LANGUAGE

FROM A PARSON!

One of the most unusual and most sensational utterances ever made in the South caused tears to spring to the eyes of hundreds of business men at El Paso, Texas, Tuesday night, in the course of an address to an audience of Texans, by Rev. Dr. Newton Dwight Hillis, the noted Brooklyn, New York, pulpit orator.

Dr. Hillis had been telling his audience of the fearful conditions in ruined and despoiled Belgium, Northern France and Serbia, under German rule. They cheered wildly when the noted minister vehemently denounced the German Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs, and wept when he dramatically uttered these words: "The Kaiser sent a message to the Sultan of Turkey, saying, 'God bless you, my friend.' My friends, if I were a layman, not a clergyman, I would say, 'without meaning to be sacrilegious, 'God damn the Sultan and the Kaiser.'"

Dr. Hillis and Lawrence Chamberlain, of New York, spoke at a public meeting of over ten thousand people in El Paso, inaugurating the Liberty Loan campaign there. They left afterward for Los Angeles, Calif., on a tour of the Southwest in the interest of the Liberty Loan campaign.

SOLDIERS ARREST HOBOS.

Two negroes, one giving his name as Bill Williams, and claiming Paris as his home, were arrested by soldiers guarding the bridge on the Lair pike near Cynthiana, Monday afternoon. Williams claimed to be working for a Paris firm, and that he was on his way to Cynthiana to see a woman friend.

The other negro gave his name first as George Bradshaw and afterward as Bill Kimbrough. He said he was on his way to Covington.

The men were taken before County Judge Collier at Cynthiana, and tried on a charge of trespassing on railroad property and riding unlawfully on a freight train. They were fined $10 and costs each, but being unable to pay, are now in the Cynthiana jail.

By the provision of the new Federal law it is the duty of the guards to arrest any or all persons found riding unlawfully on the freight or passenger trains of any railroad in the State, or being found on railroad property right-of-way, or especially in or near the approaches to railroad bridges.

TO ADDRESS THE LEXINGTON VETERANS

The Lexington Chapter United Daughters of Confederacy is preparing to observe Confederate Memorial Day, Sunday, June 3, in an eminently befitting manner.

Rev. W. O. Sadler, pastor of the Paris Methodist church, has been secured to deliver the principal address. Rev. Sadler is a member of the Henry Clayton Camp, Sons of Veterans, of Birmingham, Alabama, and is an unusually gifted speaker.

MILL PROPERTY SOLD.

The old Johnson Mill, at Newtown, in Scott county, was purchased last week for a private consideration by Mr. James Mulliken, of Georgetown, from Mr. C. E. Norman, of Lexington, acting as agent for Mrs. Clifton Arnsperger, of Paris. The property was advertised in THE NEWS some weeks ago to be offered at public sale.

OILED STREETS BRINGS THE RAIN.

Everytime the streets of Paris receive their coating of oil a rain follows. The usual result followed this week when the oil was spread on the streets. Littlejohn's Carnival Company is now at Versailles, which also accounts in a measure for the downfall. As rain-makers, Littlejohn and the oil-spreaders have any known combination beat three city blocks.
